Clarke Power Services, Inc. announces the addition of Don Kelley as Vice President, Private Fleet Solutions, and head of VehiCare Fleet Solutions, a business unit of Clarke Power.

CINCINNATI, OHIO January 18, 2013 - Clarke Power Services, Inc., a leading commercial vehicle maintenance provider, is proud to announce that Don Kelley has joined the company's executive team as Vice President of Private Fleet Solutions. In his role with Clarke, Don will head up the VehiCare Fleet Solutions business unit.

Don has 35 years of expertise in the transportation industry, serving as an officer of Ryder System, and then as the Founder and President of KelleyAmerit Fleet Services, the largest contractual fleet maintenance provider in the U.S., now known as Amerit Fleet Services.

"We are genuinely excited to have someone of Don's caliber and experience join the Clarke Power Services, Inc. leadership team, and we look forward to the contributions he will make to our VehiCare business unit," said Mark Andrae, chairman of Clarke Power Services, Inc. "His success in creating and building the largest contractual fleet services company in the U.S. bodes well for the future of our VehiCare business unit. As part of Clarke Power Services, Inc. and our WheelTime network, Don can now leverage the considerable resources available to VehiCare to provide unequalled value for large, private and municipal fleet operators throughout North America. The timing of Don's addition to our executive team fits perfectly with our core strategy to grow our VehiCare business unit throughout the U.S. and Canada."
